DRAPED IN CREPE.

The Capital City of the State of Indiana

MOURNS ITS FAVORITE DAUGHTER.

Somber Drapery on Every Hand—Flags Displayed at Half-Mast from Roof and Window—Final Arrangements for the Funeral.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 28.—The capital of the state is in mourning garb for its favorite daughter. Its business streets, bright but a few days since with decorations in honor of the discovery of the confederate, are now draped in black. The funeral train from Washington. Sombre drapery is to be seen on every hand. Flags are displayed at half-mast from roof and window, and for block after block there is hardly a building that is not draped to a more or less elaborate extent. Some of the biggest structures have streamers of black and white reaching from roof to sidewalk, or stretched across from window to window on every story. In others the goods have been removed from the show windows and replaced with mourning emblems and devices of various kinds, while crepe and white rosettes are displayed on many of the private residences along the streets over which the funeral procession will move to the cemetery.

All day yesterday United States Marshal Randall of the District of Columbia, who has general charge of the arrangements for the funeral, was closeted in a room at the Denison hotel engaged in conferring with the local friends of the president and laying out the details. Early in the day he received a message from Washington intimating that it was the president's desire that the arrangements be so changed as to dispense with the services of the ten soldiers from the United States arsenal who had been selected to act as pall-bearers. The request was due to the wish of the president to avoid anything savouring of display and the honorary pall-bearers who had been selected, Judge W. A. Woods, Thomas H. Sharpe, W. P. Fishback, Moses G. McLean, Dr. H. R. Allen, John B. Elmer, Hugh Hanna, E. B. Martindale, Gen. Lew Wallace, of Crawfordsville, Hon. W. E. Niblack, of Vincennes, John R. Elder and Theodore Phany, were notified of the change in the programme and which will necessitate their serving in an active capacity.

It was also decided by the marshal and those assisting him that, owing to the limited capacity of the edifice, it will be impossible to seat clubs or organized bodies, although representatives of such will be permitted to stand as far as possible. An exception to this rule will be made in behalf of some sixty members of Gen. Harrison's regiment, the seventieth, who will be given seats in the south aisle. About one-third of the seating capacity of the office has been reserved for the immediate family, relatives and friends; and those of the general public who are first on the ground will next be admitted until every seat is occupied. The doors will then be closed. The total seating capacity of the place of worship is about 800, so that comparatively few of the thousands who will doubtless be anxious to participate in the exercises will be able to get admittance. No other arrangement, however, was possible.

Yesterday morning a delegation of the Grand Army, headed by Adj. Robins and Past Commander Walker, called at the Denison and asked permission for the veterans of the city to form in line adjacent to the church and stand with uncovered heads as the funeral procession passed between the lines. Consent was readily given and at a meeting of post commanders last night it was decided that the veterans should form on Ohio street between Meridian and Pennsylvania. It is expected that there will be about 5,000 in line.

The interior of the First Presbyterian church will present a sombre and yet beautiful appearance. The carpet passes through its doors to-day. Florists and decorators to a total of eighteen were hard at work yesterday. The front of the big organ behind the pulpit platform has been entirely hidden with drapery festooned in black and white, while above are three shields similarly festooned and so arranged as to typify a burst of sunlight, the entire effect being extremely striking.

Wide drapings of black run the entire length of the edifice over the stained glass windows, relieved at each panel with monster rosettes of white. Two American flags are draped over the front of the gallery, and beneath which the veterans must pass on entering the church, but there is no other display of the national colors. The ten side lights are festooned in black and white and similar, while from each will depend a cluster of carnations, roses and white, while above are three shields similarly festooned and so arranged as to typify a burst of sunlight, the entire effect being extremely striking.

When all have been seated, Cardinal Newman's hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," will be rendered by the choir, and Rev. Dr. Haines, Mrs. Harrison's pastor during the latter years of her residence in this city, will deliver a short invocation.

A selection of scripture will be read, and the pastor will make a brief address. The mourners will be led in prayer by Rev. Dr. Hyde, of the Congregational church, and at the conclusion of the hymn commencing "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" Dr. Haines will pronounce the benediction.

At the grave a short passage of scripture will be read and a prayer will be offered as theasket is lowered into the vault. This service will occupy but a few moments.

There were many visitors to Crown Hill cemetery yesterday and a ever-changing crowd surrounded the grave-diggers as they prepared for the reception of the remains of the first lady of the land. When the grave had been dug the right depth fourlamb of six-inch dressed stones were lowered and the seams cemented. Early this morning long hands will line the vault and cover its approaches with beautiful flowers.

There will be an almost complete cessation of business during the day, most of the business houses had already decided to close before Mayor Sullivan issued his proclamation.

Many industrial establishments will also suspend operations for the day. President Harrison's brother, J. S. Harrison, of Kansas City, Mrs. A. Saunders, and Charles E. Saunders, of Nebraska, mother and brother of Mrs. Russell Harrison, Gen. Schofield, ex-President Hayes, Secretary of the Treasury Foster and Hon. T. W. Palmer, of Michigan, president of the World Columbian commission, arrived yesterday afternoon to attend the obsequies. Marshal Randall, after a consultation with intimate friends of the president, last evening announced the order for the funeral procession. It will be headed by a detachment of the army. There will come in order carriages containing the officiating divines and the pall-bearers. The hearse will follow and directly behind it the president and the immediate relatives, followed by the members of the cabinet and their ladies. After these will follow Gov. Chase and the state officials; the ladies' board of the Orphans' home; the members of the state supreme court; intimate lady friends and carriages in general. The total number of carriages in line will exceed 100. All traffic will be suspended on the thoroughfares over which the cortege is to pass.

Will Attend the Funeral Services. CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Last evening Mayor Washburn, Commissioner of Public Works Aldrich, Comptroller May and Corporation Counsel Miles started for Indianapolis. They will attend the funeral services of Mrs. Harrison.

Yesterday morning City Clerk Van Cleave and a committee of eleven appointed for the purpose started for the same destination. Aldermen Hepburn, Swift, Mann, Bidwell, Tripp, Sexton and Martin composed the committee.

THE W. C. T. U.

Denver Thronged With the Advocates of a Pure, Sober, Christian Life. DENVER, Colo., Oct. 28.—Delegates to the W. C. T. U. convention came in rapidly yesterday, a number of special trains arriving early in the morning. As soon as the visitors arrived they were ushered to the national headquarters at the Albany hotel, where they were registered and assigned to places at private residences.

The board of superintendents and the executive committee held meetings yesterday morning preparatory to arranging the program of the city to form in line adjacent to the church and stand with uncovered heads as the funeral procession passed between the lines. Consent was readily given and at a meeting of post commanders last night it was decided that the veterans should form on Ohio street between Meridian and Pennsylvania. It is expected that there will be about 5,000 in line.

PERSISTENT FLAMES

Baffle the Skill of the Jersey City Firemen.

CAUSING A COSTLY CONFLAGRATION.

Building After Building Falls Before the Insatiable Fire, Causing a Loss of Nearly Half a Million Dollars—Well Insured.

New York, Oct. 28.—A fire, which broke out about 8 o'clock last night at Essex and Green streets, Jersey City. The fire started in the Brooklyn cooperative building. The building was four stories high and contained about 50,000 barrels and 5,000,000 casks.

The flames spread with great rapidity owing to the combustible character of the contents of the building, and in a short time extended to Philip White's liquor store. It was a two-story frame building, and the upper part was occupied by several families. The tenants all got out in safety but were unable to save anything.

From this building the fire extended to a building adjoining. That quickly succumbed. The next house east was a little frame cottage. It was in ruins in less than half an hour. All this time the firemen were making a desperate fight, but despite their efforts the fire continued to spread. The intense heat set fire to a wooden shed connected with M. R. Gantler & Co.'s cruet works. The flames spread to the main building and did considerable damage.

The fire then made its way to two brick tenements adjoining, in which ten families lived. The brick walls delayed the progress of the flames, but only for a short time. The wind carried the flames beyond the brick building to Russell's machine shop, which lasted only a short time.

From the machine shop the fire spread to the big coopers owned by C. Heidt & Son. The contents of the coopers, which was well stored, gave the fire a fresh impetus. Devlin's church adjoins the coopers and was not spared.

The fire was now getting down toward the river, and finally reached Col. Gates & Co.'s building which is used for a "flat" house, stable and box factory. The building and all its contents were consumed about half an hour.

With the destruction of this building the firemen succeeded in getting the flames under control, but it will be some time before they are completely extinguished.

The estimated loss is estimated anywhere from $250,000 to $500,000. It is nearly all covered by insurance.

A BRUTAL MURDER.

Ernest Kunne, of Chicago, Killed for the Possession of Overcoat Papers. CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—At his home in Melrose Ernest Kunne, a small capitalist, was brutally murdered Wednesday night. The victim was sitting in a chair holding conversation with two unknown men. No sooner had the murderers accomplished their gory deed than they stole certain valuable papers which were in Mr. Kunne's possession and fled.

To reach the door of the house they had to literally wade through their victim's blood, and at the garden gate they separated, each leaving a crimson trail behind to mark their path. The object of the crime was not currency, but the possession of some documents in Mr. Kunne's strong box; but the evidence left behind them tells the story almost as perfectly as though it were written in an open book. The evidence shows that the murder was committed by parties who were well acquainted with Kunne, by whom they were being entertained in a friendly way. City detectives have been put at work on the case.

Murdered for His Money. CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Ernest Kernard, aged 55 years, a resident of Melrose, a suburb of this city, was found dead in his library yesterday morning, his skull having been fractured by a blunt instrument. The furniture in his room was scattered about in confusion, indicating that the motive of the killing was robbery. Mr. Kernard lived alone and was reputed to have considerable ready money.

SENTENCED BY WHOLESALE. Eight Negroes to Terms in Chesterdown, Md., for the Murder of Dr. Hull. CHESTERDOWN, Md., Oct. 28.—Eight men will be hanged for the murder, on April 23 last, of Dr. J. H. Hull. Judge Robinson yesterday announced the decision, sentencing the eight men, Louis Benson, Henry Hurt, Moses Brown, Frisby Comery, Charles Brooks, Fletcher Williams and Charles Emery of murder in the first degree. The defendants are all colored. It is said that the date of execution will be announced by Judge Brown within a few days.

After the adjournment of court Wednesday night, all sorts of speculations to the decision were indulged in by the great crowds which filled the public resorts and streets of the town. Roman lives, to a number never before known in this section of the country were hanging in the balance and the excitement was intense.

Yesterday morning the prisoners were escorted into the court room under a strong guard. The sentence met with universal approval among the white citizens, but regret and they dominate in Kent county, are silent and threatening. No appeal of the case is expected, but further trouble in the nature of a race war is not unlikely.

Nearly Stamped Out. HAMPSHIRE, Oct. 27.—One death from cholera was reported yesterday and five new cases of the disease. "The democratic party has the supreme gall to assume, with an air of patronizing ownership, the privilege of dictating just how workingmen should vote. It claims to be the party of the poor man. It grandly claims to be for the poor have given it the strength to live long enough . . . to see the principal actors on its boards squirm and shift with every wind to catch the votes of poor men. Yes, the democratic party is the party of the poor man, and if he continues to vote that ticket he will never be anything else than a poor man."

REAR LARKER, the famous Berlin chess player, is a dapper-looking gentleman.

The Compulsory School Law.

Now that prejudice and passion have spent their force, and the democrats find themselves hors de combat on the compulsory school law question, it is time to refer to a fact or two incident to that discussion in a dispassionate and candid manner. To begin at the beginning, it is a travesty on truth to call the law now on the statutes the "Edwards law."

Dr. Edwards had nothing whatever to do with the law, except that, as superintendent of public instruction, in his report he recommended that a law be passed to cover the neglected children in large cities. In keeping with this recommendation, a bill was prepared by citizens of Cook county, and the law as it now stands was the product of that committee. Judge Pendergast, Wash. Heintz and other noted democrats took active part in its preparation, and were on the special committee sent to Springfield to urge its passage. The bill, as it finally passed, came before the governor, but before he attached his signature the citizens' clause was consulted, and they inserted it as they all right. The bill, thus indorsed and signed, contained a clause afterward found so objectionable to the bearings towards parochial and private schools, and its repeal was recommended by the governor, and defeated by the democrats, for the sole purpose of making political capital out of it for this campaign. In this they have signally failed, and the next legislature, which will be republican, will redeem the party pledge for its repeal.

Algebra's Chances. In these days of profane figuring, we submit the following list of names of democratic candidates for governor, and ask if Algebra's chances do not sink to a low point in contrast with the others.

1884—Wm. A. Richardson 1891—Lewis Stewart 1890—James C. Allen 1892—Lynn Trumbull 1885—John R. Edson 1886—John F. Harrison 1887—John R. Edson 1888—John F. Harrison 1889—John R. Edson 1890—John F. Harrison

The first also names competent men exceptionally strong in standing with the party, and better than the party, in general acquaintance and familiarity with public affairs. None of these men had a ghost of a show—albeit being driven by majorities of variable but proportionate size. Hope was had, that Koener, who ran as a liberal republican in 1878 and receiving also the full democratic vote, would draw from the republican forces enough to elect him, but the majority against him was over 40,000. Lew Stewart, who in 1879 was backed by both democrats and greenbackers, came the nearest of an election of any of these named. Algebra is by odds the weakest man of the lot, which, in connection with his enormous closeness to the vicious classes in the large cities, presages his defeat.

A Question of Acrocy. Democrats never grow weary in telling the masses that they have no objection against cheap labor in raising wheat for the European market. The fallacy of this argument is easily shown, for it is not the question of cheap labor, but the lack of land to produce the wheat. While America has the land in abundance, Europe and Asia has labor at cheap rates but not land enough to employ but a small fraction of her cheap labor in raising wheat.

Italy, with a population of 30,000,000 and very low wages, must continue to import breadstuffs. Russia, with 100,000,000 of people and abundance of cheap labor, cannot grow half as much wheat as the United States. All that can be raised in all European countries is thrown against our farmers, and if they had sufficient acreage with their cheap labor the American farmer would be brought into competition with it in a way impossible to contemplate now. Not one bushel would he be able to send abroad, while free trade stopped all manufacturing—thus destroying his home market as well. This is the least to which the Cobdenites invite the American farmer.

Free Trade vs. Protection. Go to any old merchant in your vicinity, or any old farmer, and get these tables verified for yourself.

REPUBLICAN SPEAKING AT RAMSEY.

A large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at Stoker's Hall Tuesday night which was ably addressed by Judge Jacob F. Blainship and Hon. G. W. Brown of Vandavia, and Hon. W. F. Calhoun, editor of the Decatur Republican. We must say that it was a fair presentation of the issues of the campaign from a Republican standpoint.

Mr. Calhoun is one of those genial, affable fellows who makes a good speech, bays close to the line, but does it in such a way as to merit the confidence and esteem of all, whether they agree with him or not.

It goes without saying that he could hardly be objectionable, as he is one of those much-esteemed and intelligent newspaper men who do a world of good, politically and otherwise, and ordinarily others get the credit for it. Mr. Calhoun is a success on the stump as we saw at the party—Ramsey, Ill., Independent (Dem.) Oct. 27.

State Officers of the F. M. B. A.

The annual convention of the Illinois Farmers' Mutual Benefit association, in session at Chicago, Ind., adjourned. The closing session was held with closed doors. At the election of officers C. M. Quick, one of the leaders of the order in Chicago, was elected vice-president; C. J. Lantwiler of Alhambra, treasurer and secretary, and F. M. Palmer of Clinton, R. J. Spore of Vera, and W. E. Robinson of Greenville, were chosen as the state executive committee.

A New Paper.

We have received the first number of St. John's Register, a bright, clean and well edited church paper, edited by the rector of the Parish, Rev. Montgomery M. Goodwin. It is a three column monthly paper, containing editorial and other matter of special interest and profit to the members of St. John's church. Long may it live to visit the homes of the membership and cheer them as they work together for the good of the church and the community. R. F. Bobo is the manager and treasurer for the Register.

Deamery Meeting.

The Chapter of Deamery of Bloomington will meet in St. John's church on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the 28th, 29th and 30th of November. The opening service will be on Tuesday evening at 7:30. There will be frequent services during the meeting, announcements of which will be made later. We trust that as many as can will attend and help make this a profitable meeting.—St. John's Register.

To Meet in Decatur.

The Ohio Veterans' Association from the state of Illinois closed an interesting two days' session at Peoria last evening. About 300 veterans were present. Horace Clark of Mattoon, was elected President, and O. S. Oldroyd, of Springfield, Secretary. The old Vice Presidents, one for each congressional district, were re-elected. Decatur was selected for the meeting in 1893.

Noble was pastor of the First M. E. church during the years 1870-71-72. Owing to his advanced years it is not expected that Rev. Noble will recover.

Why is It

We are selling all the Hanging lamps this fall? It is because we show more handsome designs than any one else in the city. It's a true line for us, but like all our new lines as well as our old ones, it has gone "right into business." Don't buy hanging lamps until you go through our stock. Orris E. Curran & Bae. Twelve are known to have been burned to death and others are missing; many of those who escaped are severely injured.

THEY WILL VOTE ON NOVEMBER 8 FOR STATE UNIVERSITY TRUSTEES.

The called meeting of the Macon county Board of Supervisors was held to-day at the court house, with Hon. H. F. May in the chair. The supervisors absent were Ammann, Cope, Davis and Quinn.

The communication from Isaac R. Hitt, the judicial agent, was referred to the judicial committee.

The voting place in the third district in Decatur township was changed from the Thatcher building to the harbor shop at the corner of Mason and Water streets.

THE LADIES WILL VOTE.

The board authorized Clerk Hardy to have tickets printed for the use of ladies in Macon county who may wish to exercise their privilege of voting for three trustees of Illinois State University at Champaign. There is no desire in Macon county to resist the claims of the ladies to the right to vote for trustees and the ballots will be received separately and counted.

Clerk Hardy was authorized to have the official ticket for all parties published in the REPUBLICAN and Review.

The board then adjourned until the first regular meeting in December.

National Versus Wild Cat Banks.

During the period extending from 1811 to 1815 "state" banks sprang up everywhere. The volume of currency increased from $20,000,000 to $110,000,000. Speculation followed until specie was not obtainable for paying interest on the national debt.

Another inflation tidal wave struck the country in 1830. State banks increased in number from 220 to 970. Circulation from $1,000,000 to $150,000,000. Collapse and utter ruin came in 1837. State banks everywhere collapsed until only $50,000,000 was left in circulation, and over 85,000 took the benefit of the bankruptcy law enacted in 1841, though only in force two years. These victims scheduled $440,000,000, assets less than $40,000,000. Between 1848 and 1850 over 1,000 state banks failed, and of the total number then in existence more than a third were utterly worthless. Yet the country was saved by laborers and mechanics, and were not worth the paper on which they were printed. The financial crash of 1857 wiped all these concerns out of existence, at a loss of millions of dollars to the people. The republican party gave the country a stable currency, good everywhere, gold, silver and currency, and yet the democrats demand a repeal of the law and a return to the old rotten, worthless rag money wild cat currency. This greatly pleases the anarchists all over the country, and their principal organ, misnamed Liberty, declares this wild cat plank to be "simple, straightforward, unequivocal Anarchism!" An admission by a party casting 6,000,000 votes that the Anarchists are just, and that the republicans are wrong, is a party's platform that the first great Anarchistic step, from which all the rest of Anarchism is bound to follow, ought to be immediately taken.

The Anarchists are not the only party who are in favor of the United States as well as every other government, the plotters of the murder and preachers of treason who would abolish the home, the marriage tie and every law that restrains the savage instincts of the lower of mankind, are supporters of the party whose declared policy means industrial ruin and business Anarchy in the United States. The fanatics that crave to destroy are for the democracy and its programme of destruction, and will do anything to be sold for Algeid for governor.

The Principal Demonstration of the Class in Northern Indiana.

PENR, Ind., Oct. 28.—The principal republican demonstration of the campaign in the north part of this state was held yesterday, with Gov. McKinley of Ohio as the attraction. A large procession marched through the streets to the front of the city hall, where the governor was received by the mayor, Fort Wayne, were the features of the parade. An industrial exhibition was also conducted at the exhibition grounds. A 3 o'clock train left for the city from a stand erected under the big tent of Wallace's circus. Ten thousand persons were in the tent. Maj. McKinley discussed state banks and the currency, and the candidates for the state legislature. This leaves Joseph H. Mauphin, the candidate for governor, the only Cleveland democrat in the field.

Register Your Name.

The special attention of all Republican voters is called to the fact that they must register their names on the poll books in their voting districts in order to be able to vote on election day. The books will be open in each district on Tuesday, November 1. Go in person on that day and see that your name is on the poll book. Don't forget it.—McWinnell.
